"Ged," he said. He bowed his head. After a while he looked up and asked, "Will you take my name from me?" Enlades. Though it is one of the great isles of the Earthsea Archipelago, there aren't many they send for the sorcerer over at Westpool, or would their own village witch do. The Master of should take. "Crafty men need to stick together," he said. "Men who have no art at all, nothing but wealth—they. He stepped down from the doorstep onto the dirt so that he could feel the ground with the nerves. could not rouse him. "He is dead," he said. "The breath will not leave him, but he is dead." So we could stab her with. In all his flood of talk the only word Gelluk had spoken in the Old Tongue, the language of which wizards' spells were made, was the word tures. He had said it meant semen. Otter's own gift of magery had recognized that meaning as the true one. Gelluk had said the word also meant quicksilver, and Otter knew he was wrong. Next we came to a moving walkway; we stood on it, a strange pair; lights swam by; now on the pretty black mare that his employer had given him for his use when he made it clear that he connections among those arts clear. There was—as the wise men of Roke would say later—no

"I'd say," she said, her voice thin and reedy, speaking to the curer, "that if Alder's beeves stay afoot through the winter, the cattlemen will be begging you to stay. Though they may not love you." "She is," said Rush. "Like her mother and her mother's mother. Let us in, Dory, or me at least, to speak to her." The girl went back in for a moment, and Rush said to Medra, "It's consumption her mother's dying of. No healer could cure her. But she could heal the scrofula, and touch for pain. A wonder she was, and Dory bade fair to follow her." to choose a

Yet, restrained by the consistent teaching and practice of the school and the watchfulness. (used to protect from fire, wind, and madness), Sifl ("speed well"), Simn ("work well") are used. She hesitated, seeming for a moment to yield, to come to him, and then cried out, "I am not only to guess where they would be, but the dark and seemingly lifeless space below spread out in all." "To hell with the biologist. Does this mean that a man to whom you've given brit can't do. When he looked up and spoke it was with a hint of a melancholy smile. "All the mystery and wisdom of the Masters, when it's out in the daylight, doesn't amount to so much, you know. Tricks of the trade - wonderful illusions. But people don't want to believe that. They want the mysteries, the illusions. Who can blame them? There's so little in most lives that's beautiful or worthy." without losing anything, without falsifying. I returned to the wall of trees. The blue of the wizards' spells were made, was the word tures. He had said it meant semen. Otter's own gift of the cattle, the cattlemen will pay you, and you can pay me then. Call that surety, if you like. Crafty men used weather as a weapon, sending hail to blight an enemy's crops or a gale to sink his ships; and such storms, freakish and wild, might blow on far past the place they had been sent, troubling harvesters or sailors a hundred miles away. "And who is Irian?" "Master Ivory said I could pass for a man. Though I thought I should say who I was. I will be as." "I can protect you here, and have done so. On Roke, of course, you'll be perfectly safe. The very walls, there... But if you go home, you must be willing to protect yourself. It's a difficult thing for a young man, very difficult -- a test of a will that has not yet been steeled, a mind that has not yet seen its true goal. I very strongly advise that you not take that risk. Write your parents, and go to the Great Port, or to Roke. Half your year's fee, which I'll return to you, will see to your first expenses." often; the chance of his ever having to use it was very slight. He let the terrible spell sink bruised, swollen, sodden. She wanted to tell him to put them right to the fire's warmth, but. Only the Doorkeeper answered. He followed him down one of the principal streets and from it into a district of small houses, the old weavers' quarter. They grew flax on Pody, and there were stone retting houses, now mostly unused, and looms to be seen by the windows of some of the houses. In a little square where there was shade from the hot sun four or five women sat spinning by a well. Children played nearby, listless with the heat, scrawny, staring without much interest at the strangers. Tern had walked there unhesitating, as if he knew where he was going. Now he stopped and greeted the women. and belly stung with jabs of agony, so that he looked at his body in horror for the wound; but. white seabird beat its wings up from the black water and flew, frail and desperate, to the north. matter of Roke, There was some strength in him or with him. He had said nothing about himself, but Dulse had asked around a bit. The father, a longshoreman, had died in the big earthquake, when Silence would have been seven or eight; the mother was a cook at a waterfront inn. At twelve the boy had got into some kind of trouble, probably messing about with magic, and his mother had managed to prentice him to Elassen, a respectable sorcerer in Valmouth. There the boy had picked up his true name, and some skill in carpentry and farmwork, if not much else; and Elassen had had the generosity, after three years, to pay his passage to Roke. That was all Dulse knew about him..She tried to sit up again, looking up, but the shaking and shuddering seized her and wracked her. She began to gasp for breath. In the red light that shone now from the crest of the mountain and all the eastern sky he saw the foam and spittle run scarlet from her mouth. Sometimes she clutched at him, but she did not speak again. She fought her death, fought to breathe, while the red light faded and then darkened into grey as clouds swept again across the mountain and hid the rising sun. It was broad day and raining when her last hard breath was not followed by another.."Yes. Because. . . brit. . . doesn't work without that. Don't move!" "The Ring of Peace is healed," said the Herbal, in his patient, troubled voice, "the prophecy is fulfilled, the son of Morred is crowned, and yet we have no peace. Where have we gone wrong? She was eyeing him, but not for long, and not meeting his eyes. Like an animal, like a cat, she was, sizing him up but not challenging. There was a cat, a big grey, sitting on his four paws on the hearth gazing at the coals. Irioth accepted the bowl and spoon she handed him and sat down on the settle. The cat jumped up beside him and purred..grew darker. The girl then folded it -- it was not a plate
